Description

Indian Sandalwood has been used spiritually for thousands of years. In India the Sandalwood tree is considered sacred. Sandalwood has a warm, woody, earthy aroma that has been used for creating a peaceful atmosphere, quieting the mind, and helping reduce nervous tension. It can be added to a bath to help you relax and unwind after a busy day! Use it when your throat is tender to help soothe the pain and be back to normal once again. Sandalwood is a great source to help keep the skin clean. Our Sandalwood comes from a plantation in Australia to help preserve the trees in India. Every batch of Plant Therapy Indian Sandalwood can be traced back to where the actual trees were grown to ensure that we are doing our part to produce 100% pure, undiluted, ethically sourced Indian Sandalwood Essential Oil.

Directions

To soothe a tender throat, mix 1 drop of Niaouli and 1 drop Indian Sandalwood with a half teaspoon of your favorite Plant Therapy carrier oil and massage on the front and back of the neck. For a relaxing bath that is comforting to the senses and nourishing to the skin, add 1 drop each of Jasmine Absolute, Indian Sandalwood, and Sweet Orange and mix with a 1 tablespoon of body wash or bubble bath and add to a warm bath. Relax and enjoy!
